MADELEINE FESTIVAL PERFORMANCES

BENJAMIN BRITTEN'S NOYE'S FLUDDE

In collaboration with The Madeleine Choir School

May 7 at 7:30 PM; May 8 at 10:30 AM and 7:30 PM

“I believe, you see, in occasional music,” Benjamin Britten said in a speech in 1964. “Almost every piece of music I have ever written has been composed with a certain occasion in mind, usually for definite performers.” Whether those performers were the world’s great orchestras or a troop of enthusiastic children, Britten shaped his music to get the very best out of the resources at hand. So it was with Noye’s Fludde, a chancel opera that tells the story of Noah and the flood. With a cast of children, professionals, amateurs, and even the congregation joining in, Noye’s Fludde shows the true breadth of Britten’s creativity.

OLIVER MESSIAEN'S QUARTET FOR THE END OF TIME

In collaboration with NOVA Chamber Music Series

May 17 at 7:30 PM

Most of Messiaen’s music is directly connected with scripture, sacred liturgy and theological concepts. The Quartet for the End of Time draws its inspiration from the Book of Revelation and was composed between 1940 and 1941, while Messiaen was a prisoner in a German war camp. Scored for clarinet, violin, cello and piano, this work depicts the very beginning of the Final Judgment through eight compelling and evocative movements, including “Crystal Liturgy”, “Abyss of birds” and “Dance of fury”. This concert is presented in collaboration with NOVA Chamber Music Series.

DIOCESAN PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

CARE FOR YOUR CATHEDRAL

Deacon Jaime Zuazo, above, will be ordained to the priesthood at the Cathedral on June 19, 2026.

The Cathedral of the Madeleine has given the opportunity to appreciate the cathedral as the mother church of our diocese, during my time as a traditional deacon preparing to be ordained a priest on June 19.

The cathedral community has transmitted their reverence for liturgy, worship and hospitality. They are always welcoming and patient with my involvement. Meeting people that come from different parts of our diocese and country has been rewarding. Greeting people after mass and proving information about how to become Catholic is always exciting and hopeful.

I had multiple opportunities to serve with our Bishop, and experience the love of the faithful community gathered to celebrate the sacred mysteries. It's has been nerve wracking, but it has helped me be more comfortable and aware of my gifts and limitations and allow God to act through me.

I am extremely thankful for the opportunity to have this wonderful experience and inspire you to "Care for your Cathedral," our Cathedral, and the Mother Church of our Diocese.

DCN. JAIME ZUAZO

VOCATIONS PRAYER

*Jesus, Lord of the harvest, look with love on this portion of your vineyard.
Bless the Diocese of Salt Lake City with more priests, deacons, religious, and holy marriages to serve your people.
Through the intercession of Our Lady, the Virgin Mary, inspire many men and women to open their hearts to respond generously to your call.
Amen.*
